Duane Isaac joins Inspirus Credit Union as Spokane Branch Manager

SPOKANE – Inspirus Credit Union announced today that Duane Isaac has joined the organization as its Spokane Branch Manager.

Duane oversees the branch at 5123 E. Third Ave., Spokane Valley, and plays a key role in its community outreach efforts.

“We’re delighted to welcome Duane as a member of our management team,” said President Scott Adkins. “He comes to us with more than 30 years’ experience in the financial services industry, and he brings a unique mix of leadership and community outreach skills. He’s also worked extensively with educators in the greater Spokane area.”

Before joining Inspirus, Duane managed Spokane Teachers Credit Union (STCU) in Cheney. He also worked for Wheatland Bank, Numerica Credit Union, and U.S. Bank.

A resident of the Inland Northwest for more than 20 years, Duane earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Biola University. He’s a longtime member of the Cheney Kiwanis Club and West Plains Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he helps organize the West Plains Relay for Life (American Cancer Society) and Cheney Community Blood Drive.

About Inspirus Credit Union

Founded in 1936 by a Seattle math and journalism teacher, Inspirus serves about 80,000 members across Washington who share a passion for education. With $1 billion in assets, Inspirus operates branches in Seattle and Spokane. Its philanthropy model includes education-giveback programs that allow members to direct charitable contributions to schools in their communities. Employees also donate upwards of 800 volunteer hours a year in support of education. In addition, community education representatives provide free financial seminars, professional development, and recognition to school employees statewide.
