If Balances Don't Agree:

- Check the addition and subtraction in your register.
- Make sure you didn't forget to record any additional transactions (e.g., ATM, Overdraft Protection transfers, Visa debit, STARS) not found in your register.
- Compare the amount of each check with the amount shown on the statement.
- Compare deposit receipts and entries in your register with the statement.
- Be sure all checks have been recorded in your register.
- Be sure any dividends are entered in the deposit column of your register.
- Deduct from your register any charges for check reorders, stop payments, NSF, etc.
- Add any automatic transfers from your Savings Account to your Checking Account.
