Thanking teachers for making Washington a better place to live, work, play, and learn

INSPIRUS CONTINUES its mission of giving back to Washington classrooms! To celebrate Teacher Appreciation Day last month, the credit union fully funded 28 classroom project requests on the crowdfunding site DonorsChoose.org. The day's givebacks impacted over 3,200 students across Washington with $15,000 in donations.

Individual gifts ranged from $100 to $1,500 and included everything from new books for an in-class library to technology support for STEM learning. ((91933))

The Teacher Appreciation Day givebacks are part of the credit union's ongoing $100,000 #FundFriday pledge to support Washington classrooms in partnership with DonorsChoose.org. Each week, we randomly select a classroom project listed on the site and fully fund it.

#FundFriday goes to the heart of Inspirus's mission to bring needed help directly to classrooms. "We want to support those who teach the leaders of tomorrow," said Vice President of Marketing Sherry Lotze. "We hope they'll benefit greatly from this."
