

Shaping a future of possibilities

OF ALL THAT'S TO LOVE in the writings of poet Henry David Thoreau, one of my favorite lines is one of his simplest:

“Thought is the sculptor who can create the person you want to be.”

I think it appeals to me because it speaks to the power of dreams and transformation, something we see every day at Inspirus through the eyes of the members, educators, and students we serve. ((262938))

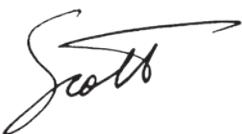

“Dreaming” was a central theme last month when we celebrated Teacher Appreciation Day with a #FundFriday blitz. On May 11, we granted 16 project requests posted on the crowdfunding website DonorsChoose.org. All were aimed at giving kids something better, often in unconventional ways.

One popular request was “flexible seating,” which allows students to form collaborative groups and tailor their environments. The idea is to eliminate physical and concentration barriers to learning. See page 2 for more.

We’re echoing that same creativity among our members. This summer, we’re sharing the power of home equity loans and showing them how, perhaps for the first time, they may be able to unlock an important resource to improve their quality of life. We’ve also arranged a special offer with our partner Enterprise, giving members a “summer break” on their first car payment. More about both on page 2.

Though very different, our work with schools and members drives toward our overarching mission as servants in helping them realize their dreams. ((203341))

Wishing you a summer of unlimited possibility,

Scott Adkins
President

“What a wonderful opportunity you have provided for us! My students will be able to have choices of where to work and what kind of seating will work best for them. I am very grateful for your thoughtfulness and generosity!”

With gratitude,
Mrs. Magner

Thanking teachers for making Washington a better place to live, work, play, and learn

INSPIRUS CONTINUES its mission of giving back to Washington classrooms! To celebrate Teacher Appreciation Day last month, the credit union fully funded 16 classroom project requests on the crowdfunding site DonorsChoose.org. The day's givebacks impacted over 1,700 students across Washington with $11,310 in donations.

Individual gifts ranged from $373 to $2,171 and included everything from new track-and-field shoes to technology support for STEM learning. ((161161))

The Teacher Appreciation Day givebacks are part of our ongoing $100,000 #FundFriday pledge to support Washington classrooms in partnership with DonorsChoose.org. Each week, we randomly select a classroom project listed on the site and fully fund it.

You can follow #FundFriday on Facebook. If you haven't "Liked" our page yet, please do! That way, you won't miss any of the inspiring classroom stories. You can learn more at inspirusCU.org/fund-friday.
